Flutes

Hey flutes! We hope that you are having a great summer! We are looking forward to having a lot of fun with you this marching season! The New Orleans Jazz show is going to be an exciting show! Be prepared for hard work at band camp and throughout the season. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact us at 706-224-1762 (Leah Williams) or 706-255-6924 (Robin Haas). Also, you can find us on Facebook. We are eager to see everyone at rookie/band camp!

Saxophones

Hey Saxes! I hope you are all having a great summer! Band camp will be here before you know it so get ready to work hard and have some fun. Our section will be small this year, so be ready to play loud and proud! I'm pumped for what is sure to be a great marching show: Mardi Gras. If you have any questions about band camp or anything else about the upcoming year, please feel free to email me at airsofter98@yahoo.com or call me at (706)621-1775. I can't wait to see you at band camp!

~Sincerely, Trevor O'Neal, Saxophone Section Leader

Trumpets

Hi everyone! We are excited and hope you are too! A big welcome back all of our veterans, we are happy you are returning! But also want to give a special welcome the upcoming freshmen. We are excited you are doing marching band and the new show for this year is Mardi Gras. We are going to put a lot of hard work in this year to make our section the best it can be. So be ready for an exciting, fun, hard working season. We can't wait to see the rookies at rookie camp to teach you what our band is all about. Hope all of your summers are relaxing and wonderful, because we are going to see you all back bright and early at band camp!

~ Christopher Adams & John Centner
Trumpet Section Leaders

Clarinets

Hey there, fellow clarinetists! SUMMER is finally here! Relax, be safe, and have fun! We hope you are bracing yourself for an epic, clusterishous, jazzy, and fantabulous experience this year in marching band. First, a huge welcome to our clarinetical rookies! And also to our awesome veterans! We are SO pumped to get to hang out with you guys and share our passion for music and marching band, as well as the truly memorable experience we have had in this lovely marching band family. We are positive that this clarinet cluster, aka section, is going to be beast! However, it will require lots of hard work, discipline, dedication, and cooperation (GO TEAM) to carry on this marching band's tradition of excellence. Can't wait to see you at band camp!

~Samantha Rorabaugh & Rebecca Carter
Clarinet Cluster Leader

Horns

Hey Mellies! Get pumped for an awesome year of marching band next year! As your new horn section leader, I want to welcome the rookies coming up and let you guys know that the horns rock, but I'm sure you already knew that though! We're like family and I look forward to seeing everybody at Band Camp! If you need anything, just call or text me at (706)-612-3779. Don't forget to practice over the summer and don't get in trouble you crazy hoodlums! Much love.

The Show

The theme of this year's show is "Mardi Gras!" The show features New Orleans jazz music including When the Saints Go Marching In, Tiger Rag, Just A Closer Walk, Miss New Orleans, Basin St. Blues and more. It's a fun and exciting show that has tons of visual and entertainment potential.

Trip

Save Spring break, April 4-8, 2011, for the band trip. It is expected to cost about $400.
